Onboarding

WHAT YOU CAN DO

- Short wizard: members, roles, kids' ages.
- Timezone and currency auto-detected.
- Starter habits pre-seeded; invites emailed in one go.
- Then a 4-step Get Started guide: add kids, set PINs, choose sticker value, pick first habits.
- It ticks steps you have really done and stays hidden once hidden, on every device.

Family settings

WHAT YOU CAN DO

- Change the family name, and the currency the whole app shows money in.
- Every screen writes it your way: £7.50 in Britain, 7,50 € in Germany.
- Download everything you have, or delete the hub for good.
- The old Admin Panel is gone: three pages named after their job.

Reward economy

Chores quietly teach money skills.

Stickers

WHAT YOU CAN DO

- Each family sets what a sticker is worth (per-child override).
- Habit pay boosts: 2x, 3x or 5x.
- Optional skip penalty and pocket money.

Money row

WHAT YOU CAN DO

- Savings split: earned last week vs kept from earlier.
- Investments show total worth and how many could lose value.
- This Week adds a live progress bar; fits phone and tablet.

Investments

WHAT YOU CAN DO

- Every invested habit says so: at risk or safe, and what it pays.
- Investments read as one line each, at-risk first; tap to open one.
- Open one to see what went in, what rolled over, and what it is worth today.
- A finished week reads as a record: what was earned, where it went, how much got done.
- Switch a habit between at risk and safe from inside its row.

Invest & grow

WHAT YOU CAN DO

- Parents invest a child's stickers into a habit.
- The habit pays more AND the invested value grows every completed day.
- Pick the pay multiplier and whether a missed day costs anything.
- Take part of an investment back, not just all of it.

A child's money, and who may touch it

One page per child. One rule for who can do what.

Kids money

WHAT YOU CAN DO

- One page per child: spendable, saved and growing, plus the total.
- A family with one child skips the picker and just shows them.
- Week by week, newest first. Open one to see where the stickers went.
- An open week says so, rather than showing zeroes as if they were final.

Five real actions

WHAT YOU CAN DO

- Claim a reward from your own shop, cash out, or bank stickers.
- Closing the week now opens the same screen, one choice at a time.
- Invest behind a habit, or take part of an investment back.
- Every one says what will happen before you confirm it.
- If a save fails it says so, says nothing changed, and stays open.
- Closing the week ends on "All done", and offers to show their money.

Who can do what

WHAT YOU CAN DO

- The menu only shows doors you can walk through.
- Any grown-up moves money: all of it can be undone.
- Only an admin closes a week, sets a balance, or changes the family.
- The server refuses either way. The menu is a courtesy, not the lock.
